Identify factors, factor pairs and common factors

1 For each of the following, tick the numbers which are factors of the circled number.

2 For each of the following write down all the factor pairs, except 1 and the number. Example 12 → 2 & 6, 3 & 4

a 24 →

b 40 →

c 54 →

3 a Write numbers in each section of the sorting diagram. An example is shown.

	Factor of 36 (not 1)		Not a factor of 36
Factor of 20			5
Not a factor of 20

b Write down all the common factors (except 1) of 60 and 84.

Multiply and divide whole numbers and decimals by 10, 100 and 1000

- 1 Complete the table below, by multiplying each number by 10, 100 or 1000. Some examples are shown.

	63	7	0.4	684	1.06
$\times 10$				6840
$\times 100$
$\times 1000$		7000

- 2 Now put the numbers through the 10s, 100s or 1000s division machines.

Recognise mixed numbers and improper fractions and convert from one form to the other

1 Look at the shaded parts of the shapes and then complete the mixed and improper fractions.

$$\text{and} = \frac{5}{\quad} = 1 \frac{\quad}{4}$$

b

$$1 \frac{\quad}{\quad} = \text{and} = \frac{\quad}{\quad}$$

c

$$\text{and} \text{ and} = \frac{\quad}{\quad} = \frac{\quad}{\quad}$$

2 Match the mixed numbers and improper fractions, by joining the matching pairs with a line. One has been done for you.

$\frac{9}{5}$	$\frac{4}{3}$	$\frac{12}{5}$	$\frac{5}{4}$	$\frac{10}{3}$
$1\frac{1}{3}$	$1\frac{1}{4}$	$3\frac{1}{3}$	$1\frac{4}{5}$	$2\frac{2}{5}$

Note: A line is drawn from $\frac{5}{4}$ to $1\frac{1}{4}$ in the original image.

Convert between different units of metric measure

- 1 Complete the table below to show the conversion of units of length. Some are done for you.

mm	4,000,000		14,000
cm		200
m	4000
km	4

- 2 Complete the following.

- a $2000 \text{ ml} = \boxed{} \text{ l}$ c $4.255 \text{ l} = \boxed{} \text{ ml}$
- b $6 \text{ l} = \boxed{} \text{ ml}$ d $3500 \text{ ml} = \boxed{} \text{ l}$

- 3 How many grams are shown on the scales below?

- 4 a How many kilograms are equivalent to 3400 g? $\boxed{} \text{ kg}$
- b How many kilograms are equivalent to 343 g? $\boxed{} \text{ kg}$

Draw angles

- 1 For each of the following, use your protractor to draw the angles, as indicated in the , from point A.

EXAMPLE

- 2 Now try these.

Identify, describe and represent the position of a shape following reflection

1 For each of the following, draw the reflection of the shape across the mirror line.

2 For the following, write the new co-ordinates for points A and B

After reflection

A is at (..... ,)

B is at (..... ,)

After reflection

A is at (..... ,)

B is at (..... ,)

Complete, read and interpret information presented in tables

- 1 The table below shows the scores of some friends in the game Zap Ball.

	Game 1	Game 2	Game 3	Game 4	Game 5	Total
Jon	7	7	6	10	7
Meera	9	8	9	5		40
Eva	6	7	8	7	6
Tariq	9	8	9	9	8
William	7	6		8	9	38

- a Complete the table by filling in the empty boxes.

- b Who had the highest score for an individual game?

- c Who had the lowest score for an individual game?

- d What was Jon's mode score?

- e Find the mean average score for each player.

Jon

Meera

Eva

Tariq

William

- f Each game was out of 10. Complete the table below.

	Eva Game 1	Tariq Game 5	William Overall
Percentage score	%	%	%

Further mastery – number and place value

1 Answer the following questions about the number one million.

- a How many digits are there?
- b What is the digit in the millions place?
- c What is the digit in the hundreds place?
- d How many thousands are there in 1 million?
- e What number is 300 more than 1 million?
- f What number is 26,000 more than 1 million?

2 Write the smallest and the greatest 6-digit whole number you can make using the digits 4, 8, 2, 0, 1, 7.

smallest greatest

3 52,342 people attended a football match.

- a Football programmes come in boxes of 1000 in each box. How many boxes would have been opened if each person bought one programme each?
- b The stadium had 100 seats in each row. How many rows were fully occupied?
- c How many people attended to the nearest ten thousand?
- d A stadium computer counted the people in tens. How many tens did it count?

Further mastery – geometry

Examine the shapes above. Which of them are regular quadrilaterals?
Explain your answer by referring to the properties of regular quadrilaterals.

4 Draw the following shapes on the grid below.

- a An irregular hexagon.
- b A triangle which does not have any lines of symmetry.
- c A quadrilateral with 4 lines of symmetry.
- d A parallelogram with 2 lines of symmetry.

e What is another name for shape D?

5 Now write co-ordinates for each vertex of the shapes in 4 b and d.

OUR HOBBIES

Jamila and Sanjeev like different things. Here they are talking about their hobbies.

Hi. My name is Jamila. I'm very interested in anything to do with geography. All sorts of information easily stays in my memory. The names of capital cities, mountain ranges – I love all that stuff. I'd be very reluctant to stop my studies. In fact, when I'm older I hope to find a solution to some of the world's environmental problems.

- 1 Which word or phrase tells you how much Jamila likes her chosen hobby? _____
- 2 Which word tells you she likes to study different countries? _____
- 3 Which word tells you she has no difficulty in remembering facts about different countries? _____
- 4 Which word suggests she would be unwilling to give up her hobby? _____
- 5 Which word tells you she would like to sort out problems in the world? _____

My name is Sanjeev and my friends think I'm a bit eccentric. That's because I get up at dawn with my binoculars to do some bird-watching. It's so peaceful then. No traffic; just birdsong. Getting up at four-thirty may sound mad, but try it once in the summer holidays and you'll realise the experience is irresistible.

- 6 Which word tells you Sanjeev's friends think he's unusual? _____
- 7 What does he use to get a better view of the birds? _____
- 8 Which word tells you it's quiet at that time in the morning? _____
- 9 Which word means he can't give it up? _____

WORD SWAPPING

Read these sentences and think of a word or phrase that means the same, or is similar, to the one in bold. One has already been done for you.

- 1 I ran as fast as I could from the venomous snake. _____
- 2 I was very thankful when my lost cat was returned. _____
- 3 The food I had at the new restaurant was delicious. tasty
- 4 The headteacher told off the boy for being impolite. _____
- 5 The reckless driver disregarded the No Entry sign. _____
- 6 Even with a map, I was uncertain which way to go. _____
- 7 Who replaced Henry VIII as monarch when he died? _____
- 8 Is it as hard to descend a mountain as it is going up? _____
- 9 I had the misfortune of having my car keys stolen. _____
- 10 The twins were quarrelling over who owned the ball. _____
- 11 The children suspended decorations from the ceiling. _____
- 12 The superhero could transform herself into a tiger. _____
- 13 The parents were asked to donate money to charity. _____
- 14 Gardeners prune roses to encourage growth. _____
- 15 I was happy to exchange my old pen for a new one. _____

MISSING WORDS

Complete these sentences, using the context to help you choose the correct word from the list. In each sentence, particular key words or phrase will give you a clue. Underline the words or phrases that help you make the right choice.

- 1 In a medical _____, I'd call an ambulance.
- 2 I need to buy some _____ batteries for my torch that's stopped working.
- 3 My socks must be very _____, because they soak up lots of water.
- 4 Because I love science and I'm very _____ I'll pass the exam.
- 5 A _____ in the cost of cinema tickets resulted in more people going.
- 6 An _____ of the rugby player's injured leg showed that no bones were broken.
- 7 There seems to be _____ over who the pencil case belongs to, as Jan and Rula both have the same design.
- 8 Finally, I've gathered together all the _____ I'll need for my camping holiday.
- 9 Trout are very cunning, so it takes a lot of _____ to sit on the riverbank all day, hoping to catch one.
- 10 My dog was very _____ to try the cheaper dogfood I bought.

HENRY VIII

Here is some information about King Henry VIII. He was a big man and didn't like people disagreeing with him. Read about his life and the order in which various events took place.

Personal Profile: Henry Tudor

Dates	Born in 1491 and died in 1547.
Family	When Henry was 5 years old, he and his mother, Elizabeth of York, had to flee from rebels in London to the safety of the Tower of London. His father was Henry VII and the first monarch of the House of Tudor. He died in 1509. His older brother, Arthur, would have been crowned king, but he died in 1502.
Coronation	Crowned king in 1509.
Character	Henry was a skilful horseman and archer. He enjoyed jousting, music, dancing and having feasts at Hampton Court. Making him cross risked having your head chopped off. (See 'Wives' below.)
Important actions	In 1534, he made himself Head of the Church of England. One of his warships, the Mary Rose, sank in 1545. (It was lifted off the seabed in 1982 and can be visited in Portsmouth.)
Wives	Catherine of Aragon: married in 1509 – divorced in 1533. Anne Boleyn: married in 1533 – beheaded in 1536. Jane Seymour: married in 1536 – died in 1537. Anne of Cleves: married in 1540 – divorced in 1540. Catherine Howard: married in 1540 – beheaded in 1542. Catherine Parr: married in 1543 – outlived Henry VIII, dying about 18 months after him.

Now use Henry VIII's personal profile to number the following facts in the correct order.

- ☐ Catherine of Aragon is divorced
- ☐ The Mary Rose sinks
- ☐ Henry VIII is born
- ☐ He marries Catherine Parr
- ☐ Henry VII dies
- ☐ Anne Boleyn is beheaded
- ☐ Henry is crowned king
- ☐ Henry and his mother flee to the Tower of London
- ☐ Henry VIII dies
- ☐ Henry marries Jane Seymour
- ☐ The Mary Rose is lifted off the seabed
- ☐ Henry's brother, Arthur, dies
- ☐ Henry divorces Anne of Cleves
- ☐ Catherine Howard is beheaded

OUR SCIENCE LESSONS

Class 5 have been doing a number of experiments and research on different science topics. Here, the children are making some statements about the human body. Draw lines to link what they say with one of the details on the right.

Exercise makes your heart beat faster and stay healthy.

Muscles are attached to bones and shorten to make them move.

One job your skeleton does is to enable you to move.

Your heart is well protected by your ribcage.

Being a vertebrate means you have a backbone.

If you run fast, your pulse rate will increase.

Pulse rate measures how fast the heart is beating.

It's very important to make sure you do regular exercise.

Muscles need a supply of oxygen to function.

Many other animals, called invertebrates, have an external shell.

The skeleton protects the organs inside your body.

Oxygen is carried in the blood from the lungs to the muscles.

FIRST WOMAN IN SPACE

Read this short biography of how Valentina Tereshkova came to be the first woman in space, then answer the questions that follow.

Valentina Tereshkova was born in 1937 in a small village in central Russia, where her father was a tractor driver and her mother worked in a textile factory.

She started school in 1945 at the age of eight and left in 1953 to do textile work like her mother. During her teenage years, however, she became very interested in skydiving. She trained at the local flying club and, when she was 22 years-old, she did her first parachute jump. This experience would lead eventually to a place in the history books.

Her enthusiasm for skydiving brought her to the attention of the country's Space Programme. Russia had already put the first man into space in 1961, when Yuri Gagarin orbited the Earth. The government was very eager to achieve another Russian 'first' in what was known as the space race against the USA.

In fact, a Russian newspaper at the time reported that Tereshkova had 'dreamt of going into space' as soon as she heard about Gagarin's space mission.

Her dream and her skydiving abilities made her a likely candidate for the intensive training necessary to become an astronaut. Her training included weightless flights at high altitudes, isolation tests and spacecraft engineering. Skill in handling a parachute was an essential part of re-entry. Whoever was chosen would have to be ejected from the space capsule at 20,000 feet and land safely. She was selected in February 1962.

On the morning of 16th June 1963, Tereshkova was bussed to the launch pad. After routine communication and life support checks, she was sealed inside the rocket, Vostok 6. There followed a two-hour countdown and a successful launch.

She completed 48 orbits of the Earth in 71 hours – more time in space than all the American astronauts combined.

Back on Earth she was highly honoured, not only in her own country, where she received the Hero of the Soviet Union medal, but also around the world.

She never went into space again, but perhaps her spirit of adventure did not leave her. In 2013, she said she'd be happy to go on a one-way trip to Mars.

Now use evidence from the text to answer the following questions.

- 1 Do you think Valentina's parents expected her to grow up to be a famous astronaut? Why do you think this?

- 2 Why were her skydiving skills so important?

- 3 How do we know that Yuri Gagarin's space flight was a factor in Tereshkova's desire to be part of the Space Programme?

- 4 During her training for space travel, she had to have 'isolation tests'. Why do you think this would be part of the training?

- 5 Re-entry involved being 'ejected at 20,000 feet'. What does ejected mean?

- 6 It might be fair to say that, at this point in history, Russia was winning the space race against the USA. Give two reasons why it is fair to say this.

- 7 From what is said in the text, how do we know she became world-famous?

- 8 Did she ever lose her spirit of adventure? How do you know?

LOCAL NEWS REPORT

Here is a report in a local newspaper. Think about the features you expect in a news item and answer the questions.

CATWOMAN CAUSES CHAOS

Known locally as the Catwoman, 89-year-old Kitty Parker of Albee Avenue, received a visit today from PC D. Zaster, following a complaint from neighbours.

Kitty, a kindly woman and a frequent sight at the Church bingo sessions, is the proud owner of thirty-nine cats. For many years, she has been giving a home to any stray cat that turns up on her doorstep. This generosity of spirit isn't normally a problem for her neighbours, except when there is a full moon.

"Once a month," stated Evan Knowes, who lives opposite Mrs Parker, "the cats all line up along the garden wall and wail their heads off. I've had enough. I have to get up early to go to work and this is unacceptable."

Another neighbour, who didn't want to give her name, told our reporter that the caterwauling had put her dog off its biscuits. She said that when the howling starts up, Squiffy her Pekinese goes flying into its basket as if it were catapulted there.

A spokesman from the RSPCA confirmed that an officer from their organisation had recently inspected the house and was reassured to find that all the cats were well looked after and in good health. The RSPCA spokeswoman was not prepared to say how tunefully they sang.

Mrs Parker told us that she never hears them, possibly because she is a little deaf and doesn't always hear the numbers being called at bingo. She also insisted that, despite a number of claims on social media, at no time has she joined her cats in singing the chorus.

PC Zaster pointed out that the cat-calling falls into a very minor category of public nuisance. No further actions will be taken against Mrs Parker. He has also assured local residents that everything is now under control. Once a month, when the moon is full, he will stand guard by the cat flap to prevent a repeat of this incident.

Breaking news

Late last night, we heard from Kitty Parker that several of her cats have had kittens. This brings the total number of her feline companions to ninety-six. Anyone who might like to own a kitten should contact her in Albee Avenue.

1 How does the 1st paragraph answer the following questions?

Who? _____

What has happened? _____

Where? _____

2 What does the article tell us about Kitty Parker?

3 Describe the incident that neighbours have complained about.

4 Four other people are mentioned in this report. Who are they?

5 Write down an example of direct speech.

6 Write down an example of indirect speech.

7 The newspaper article has two concluding statements. What are they?

Punctuate sentences using speech marks

Miss Canning led Amber into her room and indicated that she should sit down. She then went to her filing cabinet where she removed some official looking papers. She thumbed through them and tutted to herself several times before finally speaking.

The dialogue below has some punctuation missing, including speech marks. Write each sentence underneath inserting the appropriate punctuation. (The speech in the first few sentences has been written in italics to help you.)

- 1 i have your school report here, dripping, she said
.....
- 2 there has been a sharp decline in your grades this term, she added
.....
- 3 you appear to have Ds or below in every subject, she said
.....
- 4 i like studying the history of magic with mr broom, amber replied
.....
- 5 dear mr broom sees the good in everyone, miss canning sighed wearily
.....
- 6 he gave me a B+, amber said proudly
.....
- 7 is there any other subject that you are good at? miss canning asked
.....
- 8 no not really, amber admitted
.....
- 9 go back to your classroom and concentrate on your lessons, miss canning instructed
.....
- 10 this is your last chance, miss canning warned her
.....
- 11 and don't forget to clean up those dirty scuff marks you made down the corridor, she said.

Using a colon to introduce a list or add further detail

Colons can be used to introduce a list, or to provide further information and details.

Add colons to the sentences below. (The second part of the sentence is written in italics to help you.)

- 1 Amber went to sit on the back bench with a group of girls Evie, Astrid, Alexa and Isadora.
- 2 Miss Finch strode to the front of the class stroking her favourite object a cane.
- 3 She had many alarming traits a bad temper, an evil laugh and a fondness for physical punishments.
- 4 Miss Finch showed the girls three objects a pencil, a book and a chair.
- 5 Miss Finch wanted her pupils to do just one thing make the objects disappear!
- 6 Amber had one overwhelming feeling panic.
- 7 She had to make a choice run away or stay and face the consequences.

Using the sentences above as examples, complete the sentences below with your own list or further information.

- 8 Amber went to sit on the back bench with a group of girls:
- 9 Miss Finch strode to the front of the class stroking her favourite object:
- 10 She had many alarming traits:
- 11 Miss Finch showed the girls three objects:
- 12 Miss Finch wanted her pupils to do just one thing:
- 13 Amber had one overwhelming feeling:
- 14 She had to make a choice:

Using coordinating conjunctions

Coordinating conjunctions link words or phrases together as an equal pair.

The most common coordinating conjunction and the first one you learn is and.

Other popular coordinating conjunctions are:

but, or, yet (and) so

The first letters make the mnemonic boys.

Place the most appropriate coordinating conjunctions from the brackets in the space provided.

- 1 Mr Broom called for Amber the following day, enrolled her into her new school. (and / so)
- 2 She had never been to an ordinary primary school before, she was feeling rather nervous. (but / so)
- 3 The headmistress, Miss Maple, was very sweet, made Amber feel at home. (yet / and)
- 4 Miss Maple hadn't been in the post for long, she was going to leave at the end of the term. (so / yet)
- 5 A new headteacher was starting after the holiday, Miss Maple had to leave. (but / so)
- 6 Amber asked why she had to go, Miss Maple refused to say. (and / but)
- 7 Everybody was kind to Amber, she never really felt part of the school. (yet / so)
- 8 The children would play with her, she struggled to make any close friends. (or / but)
- 9 She finally made friends with a boy called Aubrey Jones, AJ as he liked to be called. (and / or)
- 10 He could be a really good friend, he could be a complete pain in the backside! (so / or)

Using the passive voice

The active and passive voice are two ways of giving the same information.

The cat scratched the boy. This sentence uses the active voice. The cat does the action.

The boy was scratched by the cat. This sentence uses the passive voice. The boy had the action done to him.

Write whether each sentence is active or passive.

- 1 The cat spoke to AJ.
- 2 AJ was spoken to by the cat.
- 3 The tools were put away by the children.
- 4 The children put away the tools.
- 5 The children left the door open.
- 6 The door had been left open by the children.

Rewrite these active sentences using the passive voice.

- 7 They washed their hands with soap.

Their hands

- 8 Miss Vile was teaching the class.

The class

- 9 All the children liked Miss Philips.

Miss Philips

- 10 Miss Vile inspected all their books.

Their books

Using the perfect tense to mark relationships of time and cause

The present perfect (with have or has) is often used to talk about things in the past that have happened recently.

"I have been busy throughout the half-term holiday," said Miss Vile.

The past perfect (with had) is often used to show that something happened before another past action.

When Amber had seen her last, she was wearing different clothes.

Or that something happened before a specific time in the past.

"I had been poorly before the half-term holiday," said Mrs Rose.

Write the past perfect form of the verbs in the boxes to complete the sentences.

paint	work	change	erect	replace	make
clap	see	leave	teach	call	finish

- 1 When Amber arrived at school, lots of things
- 2 Miss Vile lots of alterations to the school over the half-term.
- 3 She the windows black, so the children could not see out.
- 4 She a high fence, so that nobody could see in.
- 5 She all the staff since she took over as headteacher.
- 6 Some of the teachers at St Augustine's for years before being dismissed.
- 7 Miss Vile introduced the new deputy head after she her speech.
- 8 AJ gave Miss Dawn some flowers after the children
- 9 Amber realised that she Miss Dawn at her other school.
- 10 When she had seen her before she herself a different name.
- 11 Her name was Miss Wand and she at Spellcaster Academy.
- 12 She Spellcaster because she was a witch who practised black magic.

Using apostrophes correctly

Apostrophes confuse people all the time. There are just two ways of using them.

First, to show something belongs to somebody.

Amber's thoughts The apostrophe is used to show the thoughts belong to Amber.

Second, to join two words together.

She's wicked. The apostrophe is used to show there are letters missing: she is wicked.

Don't use apostrophes for plurals.

Add any missing apostrophes to the sentences below. (Hint: don't add an apostrophe every time you see an s.)

- 1 Under the new leadership the rules were very strict.
- 2 Childrens bags were searched every day.
- 3 Children werent allowed to speak.
- 4 They mustnt laugh or smile in class.
- 5 They couldnt go out to play.
- 6 Theyd only be allowed to march in single file around the playground.
- 7 The childrens teachers were very severe.
- 8 Miss Dawns temper was legendary.
- 9 Her punishments were brutal.
- 10 She put the childrens hands in buckets of ice water.
- 11 She made them do sit-ups in the rain.
- 12 She attached wooden pegs to their eyelids.
- 13 Sometimes she put her pupils hands under the chair legs and then sat on the chair.

Building cohesion within paragraphs using adverbs and conjunctions

Adverbs and conjunctions can be used to link ideas within a paragraph.

Decide which of the suggested words or phrases would link the sentences well.

1 Again, In addition, Firstly, As a consequence ..... of the day's events, Amber's head was simply buzzing with thoughts.

2 Regardless, Then, However, Needless to say

....., she was very excited about the magic she had performed earlier.

3 Secondly, Furthermore, So, After a while

....., she was also very worried about what Miss Vile was planning to do.

4 Therefore, Besides, So that, As a result

..... she could practise her magic, she went up to her bedroom.

8 Overall, After all, On the one hand, Clearly,

....., it was going to be a perilous task.

9 Nevertheless, Although, Moreover, Also

....., she was determined to eavesdrop on the staff meeting.

Using the subjunctive form

Certain verbs and expressions require the subjunctive form. This is basically the same as the infinitive form. To eat, to drink, to read, to write are all infinitives.

They never end in s, es, ed or ing like other verbs.

An infinitive will almost always start with to. Subjunctives are like infinitives without to.

They are used after certain verbs or expressions, often with the word that following them.

Miss Vile advised the witch that she listen to her carefully.

The third person (she) would normally require that the verb listen end in s. However, advised is one of those words that is followed by the subjunctive form, so there is no s on the end of listen.

Choose the subjunctive form of the verb in the brackets to complete the sentences.

- 1 Miss Vile advised the witch that she carefully. (listen / listens)
- 2 She suggested that the witch from her practical jokes. (desists / desist)
- 3 She requested that somebody for an aerosol to get rid of the smell. (goes / go)
- 4 She demanded that everyone a note of what she was saying. (make / makes)

- 6 She proposed that Miss Dawn the cook. (removes / remove)
- 7 It was necessary that Miss Vile Plan R into operation. (put / puts)
- 8 It was vital that each child a dose of Potion X. (takes / take)

Complete these sentences that Miss Vile told the staff about her plans.

- 9 I command that
- 10 It is essential that

Converting nouns and adjectives to verbs using suffixes

Nouns and adjectives can be changed into verbs by adding the suffixes ate, ise, en and ify.

terminal becomes terminate special becomes specialise fast becomes fasten
test becomes testify

The usual spelling rules for adding suffixes apply for most words. There are some exceptions to the rules; some words change their spelling slightly.

Choose the correct use of the suffix from the words in the brackets to convert the noun or adjective.

- 1 It (sad) Mr Broom to have to tell Amber what had happened to her mother.
- 2 He reluctantly (clear) the facts for her.
- 3 Esmeralda Evil had (terminal) her mother's life.
- 4 Now she was (terror) the children at school.

- 10 However, Esmeralda Evil (special) in diabolical practices.
- 11 He hoped they weren't (mistake) about her identity.
- 12 He told them to (fast) their seatbelts as they boarded his broomstick!

Using prefixes to change the meaning of verbs

A prefix is a letter or group of letters placed before a word to form a new word.

The most frequently used ones are:

re- meaning back or again as in revisit.

dis- which reverses the meaning of the verb as in disappear.

over- meaning too much as in overwork.

un- which reverses the meaning of the word as in untie.

mis- meaning badly or wrongly as in misbehave.

de- meaning to do the opposite of as in declutter.

trans- meaning across or change as in transform.

Place an appropriate prefix before the verb.
