Time to Read - BookTrust

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are thrilled to be sending home a free copy of the wonderful book 'I am a tiger' today. This is a book for you to keep and enjoy at home, it does not need to be returned to school. Inside the pack, there is a copy of the book and there are also top tips for sharing stories as a family, as well as some creative materials to enable children to explore the story beyond the book.

You can also find videos of the book being read by the author and a fun 'drawalong' with the illustrator on the BookTrust website here: Time to Read | BookTrust.

We hope you love reading this book together, we'd love to see pictures of you enjoying it together on seesaw. As always, if you have any questions about reading, then please do speak to us and we'll do our best to help.

Kind regards,

Flora Griffin
EYFS Lead/ Class 1 Teacher

Ben Sapsford
Class 2 Teacher

The poster features the BookTrust logo (a heart shape) and the text "BookTrust Getting children reading". Below this, it says "Look out for your new Time to Read book". At the bottom left are logos for "Time to Read" and "Arts Council England". On the right is a large image of the book cover for "I AM A TIGER" by Ross Collins, illustrated by Karl Newson. The book cover shows a mouse standing inside a large orange and black tiger stripe circle. A small circular seal on the book cover mentions "Arts Council England".
