Dear Parents/Carers

Free activities for families over half-term and beyond!

I am grateful to Liz Hughes, one of our parents, for the information below about free activities for families over the half-term and into November. This letter is also on the school website to make it easier to access the information via the weblinks.

Wishing you all a lovely half-term break!

Yours sincerely

Diane Rawlins

Deputy Headteacher

MusicLab: Hosted by Cambridge Music Festival and developed by the Philharmonia Orchestra, MusicLab uses cutting-edge digital technology and innovative interactive design housed in a 13.5m purpose-built trailer. This new project offers a series of hands-on musical experiences and interactions, designed to put you in the shoes of a composer, performer, producer, and conductor. Read more on the MusicLab website:

<http://iorchestra.co.uk/musiclab>. MusicLab will be outside Cambridge Junction Monday 3rd - Saturday 8th November, and at King's Hedges Primary School Monday 10th - Thursday 13th November. There are school sessions during the day 10am - 3pm, but from 3pm - 6pm on weekdays, and 10am - 6pm on Saturday 8th Nov it will be open to the public.
