

Message from Mr Tull – 28th February 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you all had a good half term last week. The children have had an excellent first week back to school this week and the sun has even been shining today.

This week in school:

Paint What Matters: On Wednesday, it was the launch event of 'Paint What Matters' at Kettle's Yard. It was lovely to see so many attend to celebrate the creative work of Year 4 so beautifully displayed in such an amazing setting. The exhibition features over 500 pieces of art created by children and young people responding to the prompt 'What matters to you today.' It will be on display until 9th March 2025 and is well worth a visit.

Class 12 Assembly: Thank you to all the parents and carers of children in Class 12 for attending the class assembly today. The children shared some excellent writing in response to reading 'The Firework-maker's Daughter'. They also shared their learning about volcanoes in Geography and the fairground rides they had made in Design and Technology.

Next Week:

Pancake Day Lunch: The school kitchen will be serving pancakes for dessert on Tuesday to celebrate pancake day.

Parent/Carer Consultations: Parent and carer consultations will be held after school on Wednesday 5th and Thursday 6th March. Online booking will remain open until Tuesday 4th at 10am. Please do remember to book an appointment.

EYFS reading café: Our reading café for classes 1 and 2 will be running from 2.45pm on Thursday. We welcome parents and carers from classes 1 and 2 to attend

Arbury World Book Day: Don't forget that our World Book Day celebration is on Friday 7th March. There has been separate communication about this.

Looking Further Ahead: (Key dates are in the school calendar on the website)

Half Termly Tea: Our next half termly tea is on Friday 14th March after school.

As always, please do contact us if we can be of help. If you have any specifically KS1 questions, please contact Sophie Morris at smorris@arbury.cambs.sch.uk and for anything particularly involving KS2, please contact Kate Dowdall at kdowdall@arbury.cambs.sch.uk.

Kind regards

Ben Tull
